Surely by now everyone is aware of what a huge success the first 3Doodler was, to enlighten those that have missed the hype it is affectively a 3D printer in your hand, combined with a safer version of a glue gun; in a sense that it's filled with a plastic based cartridge. It allows you to literally draw in the air, by extruding heated plastic that cools instantly into a solid structure.

After two years of the 3Doodler first being launched, a tonne of testing, research and development has been completed by its designers at Wobbleworks Inc. This has resulted in a new model of their ground breaking gadget; presenting the 2.0 generation 3Doodler. It's slimmer; ¼ of the size and weighs only 50g; half the weight of the first model. It has in affect been totally redesigned from tip to toe, and is more efficient, quieter and altogether sleeker. It has a new aluminium casing adding a premium feel to the gadget, combined with a re-engineered drive system, an entirely new nozzle, enhanced airflow system to cool the ink instantly, and a new dual speed control to assist in the perfect precision of the doodler's creations. If that wasn't enough it now comes with a "jet pack" accessory for portable 3D doodling and 3 hours of it at that!

All these new features and design developments make this gadget even more desirable, not only to people who love to draw but artists, designers, teachers, architects to name but a few! Whether freestyle 3D sketching or tracing shapes to make a larger structure the 3Doodler 2.0 really is the new "must have" gadget of 2015.

THE STATS:

- The 3Doodler raised over $100,000 just hours after the project went live on Kickstarter.
- It smashed its $30,000 target in just 16 minutes of going live, over 3 hours faster the Original 3Doodler.
- It is the first hardware product to ever raise more than $1 million in a second 'sequel' campaign on Kickstarter and did so in 10 days, this put Wobbleworks inc. 3645% above their target!
